2007 CSHPC Overall Show Champion - Shona of Sunnyneuk

Judges Jean Connell and Sandy Baird were unanimous in their praise of Martin and Wendy Taylor's yield mare, Shona of Sunnyneuk, at Central Scotland Highland Pony Club Annual Show. The mare, which earlier in the year stood Reserve Female In-Hand Champion at the Highland and Supreme In-hand Champion at Perth, rounded off a successful season by being placed Overall Champion of the Show and Champion of the Lochlands In-Hand Grand Final. Shona, who is by Concorde of Whitefield out of Selina of Caenlochan, also topped the progeny class with her half brother Merlin of Sunnyneuk, owned by Sarah Rathbone.

Reserve in the Lochlands Final went to Irene Grant's three year old gelding, Sheamus of Inverdarroch, bred by Bruce Haliburton. Sheamus was Reserve In-hand Champion at Central last year and this year won Overall In-hand Champion at the Scottish Farmer Championships at Strathallan Castle, Champion and Reserve Overall at Kinross and Reserve Champion at Alyth.

Jean Connell found her Reserve Champion in G & A Towns' eye catching homebred yearling filly, Pamela May of Forglan. She has had 4 outings this year winning 2 firsts and 2 seconds.

2007 CSHPC Overall Reserve Champion - Stuartdene

The Ridden Champion and Overall Reserve went to Kirsten McKay and Stuartdene. The duo has had a successful season coming first in their class at both the Royal Highland Show and the Highland Pony Society Breed Show. Kirsten went on to take WHP Reserve Champion later in the day. Reserve Ridden Champion was Pauline Cousin's gelding, Connachan Buzzard.

Novice Ridden Champion went Sally Coutts' 7 year old mare, Joanna of Forglen, ridden by Joanna Jack. Reserve was Ailsa Docherty's 4 year old mare Ailsa of Mendick.

WHP Champion was Mrs E B Compton's mare Heatherbelle of Turin Hill ridden by Hamish Cameron. Heatherbelle has now been retired to stud after a successful season winning In-hand and Ridden Champion at Braco, first open ridden at Blair Castle Highland Pony Championships and Qualifying for the Festival of Champions in Prelim, Novice and Elementary Dressage.
