

CSHPC Annual Show 2008

Judged by Jennifer Allan and in strong competition, the Central Scotland Highland Pony Show Supreme Champion and Highland Pony Society Bronze Medal winner for a second year was Martin and Wendy Taylor's 5 year old yeld mare, Shona of Sunnynuek. Shona took the double at last years show lifting the Lochlands In-Hand Champion of Champions as well the Show's In-hand and Supreme Champion tickets.

Reserve In-hand Champion of the Show and winner of the Lochlands In-Hand Champion of Champions, judged by Charlie McQuattie, was Sheena Lane's 11 year old gelding, Carrick of Shianbank. Carrick is by Brig O'Doon of Whitefield and out of Yowley of Whitefield. Shown and produced by Barbara McVean, Carrick has won three championships earlier in the year taking the In-hand and Ridden Championship at Drymen and Reserve In-hand Champion at Stirling.

The Reserve in the Lochland's was another gelding, Seamus of Inverdarroch. Seamus was reserve in the Lochland's last year as well as Champion at Fife Show and Doune and Dunblane this year, and Reserve Champion at Blair Atholl. He also boasts an unbeaten record in his In-hand classes this year.

The Reserve Supreme Championship went to the Open Ridden Champion, Joanna of Forglen, owned by Sally Coutts and ridden by Joanna Jack. The mare has been ridden Champion this year at the NPS Spring Show and Reserve Champion at the Royal Highland Agricultural Show and at the Highland Pony Society Breed Show. The Reserve Open Ridden went to Tim and Jean Connell's mare, Rowan of Achnacarry ridden by Lisa Allison. Rowan has been Reserve Champion Ridden pony at Central and West Fife Show and Braco Show earlier in the year.

The Novice Ridden Champion was Spruce of Moulzie ridden by Marion Rodgers. Reserve was JR

Cessford's Montreathmont Ogilvie.

In the Working Hunter section the Nursery Novice Working Hunter pony Carlung Innes came through to take the championship for a delighted Miriam McCloy. Reserve was the gelding Whitefield Prince Henry, owned by Fiona Bell and ridden by Joanna Jack.
